The ACLS provider course focuses on the management of adult patients in cardiac arrest, the management of stable and unstable bradycardias and tachycardia, provides an overview of the initial care of acute coronary syndrome and acute ischemic stroke, and reinforces the importance of basic life support as the foundation for advanced cardiovascular life support.

Registration Deadline
Seven days prior to class.

Location(s)

Griffin Hospital
130 Division Street
Derby
Connecticut
06418-1326
United States